

SAILORS IN HAYTI HELP MARJORIE

Every Man on U. S. S. Culgoa Sends Dime Through Albert Hopkins.

BATTLESHIP GIRL BROOKLYN GUEST

Welcomed by Lieutenants at Theatre—Wheeling Fund Jumps to $232.

On board the U. S. S. Culgoa, now lying at Port-au-Prince, Hayti, are 208 men. Yesterday Albert A. Hopkins, the mascot of the navy, turned over 208 dimes from them to Marjorie's Battleship Fund. Every officer and sailor aboard the supply ship responded when they heard of the plan on foot to build the U. S. S. America, and their contribution came through Marjorie's young lieutenant.

This adds another corner of the globe to the far-off places that are learning of Marjorie. China has heard of her, Cuba knows her, the Philippines and Hawaii have contributed. The Canal Zone has had several enthusiastic Marjorie boosters, England has read of the plan, and even the boys in the trenches of Flanders know of the patriotic girl.

Albert Hopkins, who has interested the sailors on many of the ships of our navy by climbing aboard with his silver loving cup to get the dimes, was instrumental in enlisting the men of the Culgoa. Nearly every day he boards some ship in the navy yard, a dreadnought, destroyer, submarine, tug or hospital ship, and the battleship buttons begin to fly. Yesterday he reported his collections from the shipwright shop, navy yard, the Culgoa, and also the result of some work done on land at Sag Harbor.

Albert's Ambition $1,000.

When Albert gets the latest returns from the buttons which he has sent widespread he expects to pass the $500 mark easily and then to start a final sprint toward $1,000. It is his ambition to be the first of Marjorie's lieutenants to collect a sum of four figures.

Last evening both Marjorie Sterrett and Albert Hopkins were the guests of the Norwood Theatre, Brooklyn, where a patriotic film was shown. The three boys—Wilbur, Eberhard, of P. S. 108, and Silbus Reed and Walter Miller, of P. S. 65—who have sold so many battleship buttons in the lobby there welcomed Marjorie herself to their zone of activity.

A telegram from "The Wheeling W. Va." Register yesterday reported that its fund, which on April 15 was $112.61, had jumped in a week up to $282, from 2,149 contributors.

Ethel Schmidt a Hustler.

Ethel Schmidt, Marjorie's captain at Rutherford, N. J., has been keeping on her feet in spite of sickness. Even while in bed she collected the weekly contributions from her family. In a letter yesterday she wrote, in part:

"I am to become a member of the Junior National Security League. I attended a lecture on preparedness by a member of the National Security League, and it nearly made me cry when I heard of the plight of the United States. According to the printed facts that are stated about our army and navy, we are nearly as badly off as China. I should think that the schools should train their pupils, whether boys or girls, for military life, instead of teaching them to pursue hobbies—something that in years to come they will not need to do."
